

Looking for bloggers

Do you have a blog that is related to the e-commerce industry? If so we'd like to chat.

CommerceStyle.com is currently looking for e-commerce bloggers. We want someone who works full time in the e-commerce industry, specifically someone who is working on a new online company and would be interested in sharing their trials and tribulations with the masses, and get some great exposure in the meantime...

If you think writing your daily thoughts and adventures while thousands of like minded e-commerce professionals read along sounds like fun then please email us with a brief description of why you think you would make a great blogger for the e-commerce world.

If you already have a blog that you think we should take a look at then please email me the link and your information.

We look forward to hearing from you, and stay tuned the site gets closer and closer to launch every day!
